In my 19 years of Location managing I have covered every side of filming (features, drama, commercials, stills etc). This has taken me to every corner of the kingdom, to the remotest field/beach/forest/road to the top of council estates in the heart of London, Glasgow etc and deep down into the sewers. I have been to more towns than a sales rep, more houses than an estate agent, more greasy cafes than a builder, more hospitals than a doctor. I have been asked to find both the bizarre and the mundane , from visiting brothels to photographing the lids of toilet seats in Service Stations from London to Glastonbury. In the process I have drunk tea with Lords n Ladies and shared Special brew with down and outs under the Arches and all in the name of LOCATIONS.
